RULES.

Approved by Government in Pro. No. 1724-Pol. 63-2 dated 29th December 1904.

PART I.—STAFF AND CONSTITUTION.

Staff.

1. The School will be placed under the supervision of the Assistant to the Inspector General as Principal under the control of the Inspector General of Police. The Lecturers and Instructors in the different subjects are:—

Law.....Inspector Shama Rao.

Police orders, Procedure, Practical Work, Special and Local Laws. } Inspector Narna Iyer.

Physical Drill and Excerise—Chief Constable Searle.

"Grip".....Special Instructor.

Drill.....Inspector Edwards and Drill Instructor.

Survey. Drawing. Photography. } .....Instructor D'Silva.

Ambulance..... Assistant Surgeon Mr. Md. Usman.

2. Instruction will be afforded to (A) Probationary Assistant Superintendents of Police, (B) candidates for the post of Inspector, (C) candidates for the post of Station House Officer.

(A)—Probationary Assistant Superintendents.

The rules regulating the instruction of these officers will be found in Part IV.

(B)—Inspector's Class.

(1) The selection of candidates for this class will be made by the Inspector General of Police.

(2) The candidates should be between 20 and 25 years of age, and must as a rule be undergraduates, possessing a thorough knowledge of Kanarese.

Note.—The Inspector General may authorise a relaxation of the above rule concerning the examination qualification for admission on special considerations of family connection with the Department, all such admissions being reported to Government.

(3) Recruits will pay an admission fee of Re. 1 and a monthly fee of Rs. 2, except in the case of sons of Police Officers of the Mysore Government who will be required to pay half the above rates of fees.

(4) All recruits will be examined medically by the Civil Surgeon, Bangalore, before being admitted to the School. A recruit should not be less than 5 feet 4½ inches in height and 32 inches in chest measurement, exception being made in the case of Graduates or in special cases.

(5) Admission to the School will be made equitably from the different races and classes.

(6) Due consideration will also be shown to the descendants of loyal and faithful Government servants or of respectable Mysore families.

(7) Recommendations of Principals of Colleges, and in the case of candidates who are in the service, of Heads of Departments, will be specially considered in judging the moral and mental fitness of the candidates.

(8) With regard to candidates in the department, selection will be made with reference to the special recommendations of Superintendents or Assistant Superintendents of Police and Deputy Commissioners, provided the candidates are young enough to be benefited by the instruction in the School. Ordinarily Head Constables and Jamedars of proved merit who have done exceptionally good work, and who have shown signs of their fitness for the post of Inspector or Chief Constable, will be selected.

(9) Exclusive of Police Officers, not more than 15 recruits will be admitted, preference being given to Mysoreans.

(C)—Station House Officer's Class.

(1) Smart young Constables, Daffedars or Sergeants who are likely to make good Station House Officers will be admitted into the class, on the recommendation of Superintendents or Assistant Superintendents of Police and Deputy Commissioners.

(2) Private candidates to the number of 15 will be admitted, preference being given to Mysoreans. As an educational qualification, the candidates should ordinarily have passed the Matriculation or the Mysore Lower Secondary Examination. They must be under 25 years of age.

Note—The Inspector General may authorise a relaxation of the above rule concerning the examination qualification for admission on special considerations of family connection with the Department.

(3) All recruits will be examined medically by the Civil Surgeon, Bangalore, before being admitted to the School. A recruit shall not be less than 5 feet 4½ inches in height and 32 inches in chest measurement.

(4) Recruits should pay an admission fee of Re. 1, and a monthly fee of Re. 1, except in the case of sons of Police Officers of the Mysore Government, who will be required to pay half the above rates of fees.

PART II.—DISCIPLINE.

1. The maintenance of discipline will devolve upon the Principal under the direction of the Inspector General.

2. The Principal will be empowered to inflict on all students other than Probationary Assistant Superintendents or Inspectors, any punishment short of reduction or dismissal, and to suspend pending orders of the Inspector General, any student guilty of a serious offence, or of grave insubordination. The Principal is not empowered to punish Inspectors and any misconduct by such officers should be reported to the Inspector General.

3. The Principal will be authorised to grant casual leave and to give exemption from attendance at any particular parade or class, but leave will be only granted upon the production of a medical certificate, or under exceptional circumstances.

PART III.—UNIFORM.

The Drill staff will wear khaki uniform for ordinary parades. Probationary Assistant Superintendents under training in the School will similarly wear the khaki "optional" tunic with khaki riding breeches, blue putties and brown boots.

Pupils of the Inspector's Class who are already in the force will wear the uniform of their rank, while private candidates will be provided with a uniform pattern of clothing the coat being similar to the optional tunic of an Inspector, blue turband and putties and strong brown boots.

The men of the Station House officers' class who are already in the Force will wear the uniform of their rank, and private candidates will be supplied with Station House officer's uniform but with a blue turband and putties and strong brown boots.

PART IV —CURRICULUM.

1. Probationary Assistant Superintendents will join the School immediately on appointment and undergo training there for a period not exceeding 8 months, the exact length of their course being decided by the Inspector General.

The course of instruction for the Inspectors and Station House Officers' class will extend over a period of 8 months.

2. Probationary Assistant Superintendents will be required to supply themselves with a suitable horse with as little delay as possible, and their riding regularly will be insisted upon. These officers will be put through a course of drill including practice with a carbine and revolver. Police orders, Medical Jurisprudence and the Law subjects will be regularly studied, the Principal arranging for such help being given in the subjects as may be necessary. Other duties, such as attendance at special lectures, taking of roll-call, inspection of quarters and practical work in connection with the Police Division attached to the school will be detailed by the Principal. Each officer will weekly submit a report of all that he has done to the Principal who will have the option of forwarding any report to the Inspector General, when he considers it necessary. The reports will be returned after perusal and will be carefully kept for the inspection of the Inspector General.

Probationary Assistant Superintendents should obtain a pass in the Local Service Criminal Test before they can earn confirmation as Assistant Superintendents of Police.
